Naat by Imam Zainul Abideen

Naat by Imam Zainul Abideen, when he was surrounded amongst enemies after the incident of Karbala

O Winds! If someday you pass by the sacred land,

Do give my greetings at the Blessed Grave where rests the Prophet, most exalted

Oh Chosen One, Oh Chosen one ...

He whose blessed face is the midday sun, his blessed cheeks are the full moon,

He whose self is the light of guidance and whose generosity is an ocean

The Qur'an is our source proving other religions are abrogated,

When its guidelines came to us, the other books became non-existent

The sadness of separation [from Madinah] feels like a sword deep into my liver,

طوى لاهل بلدة فيها النبي المحتشم

How fortunate are the people of that city in which the Exalted & Beloved Prophet resides

ياليتنى كنت كمن يتبع نبيا عالايما

يوما وليلا دائما وارزق كزالي با لكرم

يارحمةللعالمين انت شفيع المزنبين

O Mercy for the worlds! You are the intercessor for the sinners,

اكرم لنا يوم الحزين فضلا وجودا والكرم

Shower your blessings upon us on the Day of Grief

يارحمةللعالمين ادرك لزين العابدين

O Mercy for the worlds! Assist Zaynul Abideen,

محبوس ايدى الظالمين في الموكب المزدحم

Who stands alone and in difficulty amongst the tyrants.
